

Sermon Notes 11-9-14

Scripture: Acts 16:23-34 and Mark 10:46-52

To Anticipate God means to expect God to be _____ and _____ in our lives. Do you expect God to be working in your life?

We need to shift our expectations in the church: from talking _____ God to _____ God. When have you encountered God in the church community?

_____ and _____ are two ways that we create space to encounter God. Do you expect to encounter God when we gather to worship?

Anticipation is rooted in _____ for God and a willingness to turn to Jesus even when others are saying “_____!”

When we _____ God, we rely on Jesus _____. When was the last time you truly relied on God?

_____ is any way we show our _____ for God. We are called to worship in every situation!

God is _____ when we worship in spirit and truth. God's presence _____! How do you worship in spirit?