

Sermon Notes for 8-24-14

Scripture: Genesis 2:18-20 and Luke 13:18-20

The first picture we have of God in scripture is God as _____. We are created in the _____ of our creator God!

Sunday's Question for Reflection: What does it mean to be made in the image of a God whose first trait is creator?

God invites Adam to join God's creative act by _____ the animals. God's creativity gives us _____ to be creative.

Monday's Question for Reflection: When you look at the creative ways God has made the world, how does that invite you to create?

_____ + _____ + _____ = Creativity

Tuesday's Question for Reflection: Where do your passions and your imagination intersect? How can you give action to these dreams?

Creativity is not just about visual art, music, and crafts. _____ invites us to be creative.

Wednesday's Question for Reflection: How can you bring creativity to the areas of your life that are most important?

Jesus had a passion to help people understand God's Kingdom. His creativity gave him the _____ to express that passion through _____ and _____.

Thursday's Question for Reflection: What tools do you have for creatively living out your passions?

Too often, we avoid creativity because we are worried that our creation will not be "_____." God is much more interested in our creativity expressing what is "_____!"

Friday's Question for Reflection: When have you been afraid to be creative out of fear that what you create will not be great? How can you push through that fear?

"We cannot love deeply or risk great and never know _____ or _____. Not even god was able to pull that one off!" - Erwin McManus Saturday's Question for Reflection: Are you willing to risk failure as you live a creative life? Do you see how risking failure creates the opportunities for success?
